

CAMP PROMOTER

Qualifications

Have a fairly good sense of what outdoor ministries are all about and why they are important to the church and to children, youth and the adults who work with them.

Responsibilities

- Intentionally plan with other church leaders for camp promotion and registration so there is shared ownership of efforts in outdoor ministries, good communication, understanding, cooperation and a sense of teamwork! In so doing, make it clear to whom the Camp Promoter is responsible.
- Be willing to make phone calls and other contacts to promote camp interest and camp registrations.
- Be willing to handle the camp registration process—from ordering additional forms from the regional office, to seeing that families receive and complete forms, to seeing that those forms are mailed along with a check.
- Be knowledgeable about camp scholarship opportunities for one's own church and how our region can assist.
- Help arrange for a Commissioning Service for campers, counselors and directors from your church as well as after-camp sharing.

Resources and Resource Persons

- ✓ Camp Packet from regional office
- ✓ Registration forms maybe printed and copied from the CD and camp booklets may be ordered from the regional office at 317/926-6051 or by emailing Vonnie Cloud at vonnie@ccindiana.org. Forms may also be downloaded from the regional website at www.indianadisciples.org.
- ✓ Video to invite adults to consider becoming a camp counselor: "Planting the Seeds for the Future." Contact the regional office for free loan.
- ✓ Campers and counselors who have been to camp!
- ✓ "Promoting Church Camp in the Local Congregation: A "Time Line of Events" available on the Camp CD with suggested monthly activities.

Enclosed on this CD is a PowerPoint slide show to help you promote camp in your congregation.

Compensation and Reward

Realizing that you, the camp promoter, are really a great evangelist, "calling" people into the great adventures of outdoor ministry, thus "...equipping the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ." Ephesians 4:12

Indiana Regional Office: Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Indiana, 1100 W. 42nd Street, Suite 150, Indianapolis, IN 46208, or 317.926.6051, or (fax) 317.931.2034, or vonnie@ccindiana.org.